

CALL FOR PAPERS

2nd International Conference on Innovation in Learning Instruction and Teacher Education

Theme: Innovation for sustainable education in the changing context

Hanoi, 11th – 12th December 2021

Background

The 1st International Conference on Innovation in Learning Instruction and Teacher Education (ILITE 1) was successfully held in December 2019 with 250 participants from Australia, Belgium, Germany, Taiwan, France, Spain, Singapore, Vietnam and the US.

In December 2021, Hanoi National University of Education (HNUE, Vietnam), with Vietnamese Ministry of Education and Training support, continues to organize the 2nd Conference. The 2021 theme is: “Innovation for sustainable education in the changing context”. This 2nd edition is honorably co-organized with Cologne University, Bayreuth University, National Taiwan Normal University and UNESCO Chair in Reorienting Education towards Sustainability.

The Conference aims to create an international forum for international scholars, educators and policy-makers to share theoretical and practical research on the sustainable development of education; innovations in school models and governance, teaching content, techniques, methods and assessment (at all levels); and reform of teacher education and training in the changing contexts, especially the global pandemic and the 4.0 Industrial Revolution. In doing so, the Conference is expected to provide valuable scientific evidence and insights for policymaking and school/university teaching, as well as for teacher education, towards sustainable and stable development of education; and contribute to the achievement of the 2030 New Agenda goal of ensuring quality, equitable, and inclusive education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all.

Topics

Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

- Educational strategy in the context of globalization: trends and approaches
- Sustainable development of education in the context of a pandemic: opportunities, challenges and solutions for teaching and teacher education (at all levels);
- Trends, opportunities, challenges, and solutions for educational renovation in the digital age: teaching content, methods, techniques, and assessment; Competence of students and teachers; conversion skills and digital competencies; Smart education, smart school, intelligent pedagogy.
- Modern schools and global citizenship training goals: building school programs to develop students' competencies; coordinating education between home, school and society; internationalism, intercultural and interdisciplinary aspects of teaching; building Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) schools
- STEAM education (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Maths)
- Inclusive education and education for people with disabilities
- Educational management and teacher development policy

Guidelines for abstract and full paper submission

- Papers must be original, unpublished works, and they must not be under consideration for publication elsewhere.
- All abstracts and full papers must be submitted in American English. If a paper is accepted for publication, but the English requires editing, it will be the authors' responsibility to arrange this.
- At the first stage, an abstract of max. 300 words (incl. main research purpose, methods, findings and significance) and a short bio (max. 100 words, 1 paragraph) are required. Your abstract will undergo a double-blind peer review by the international scientific board after its receipt.
- If your abstract is accepted, you will be invited to submit a full paper (see deadline below).
- Full papers should address both theoretical issues and new research findings. Your paper should be compiled in the following order:
 - o Title page; abstract; keywords (3-5 keywords)
 - o Introduction to the research problem, research questions or research hypothesis.
 - o Main content should include literature review, research methods, results and discussion
 - o Conclusion
 - o Acknowledgement
 - o References (APA 7th edition style)
 - o Font: Times New Roman, 12; Spacing: single (see attached Paper template)
 - o Word limit: 4000 to 7000 words
- Full papers will go through a double-blind reviewing process and are expected to meet the scientific criteria of novelty and academic excellence. You may be asked to submit the revised paper before the stated deadline.
- Full accepted papers will be selected for oral presentation.
- The manuscript should be submitted as an MS Word document in .docx or doc format (not as a PDF format).
- Abstracts and papers can be submitted online via the ILITE website: ilite.hnue.edu.vn or emailed to the organizer at hoithao.ilite@hnue.edu.vn

Publication

- Accepted papers will be considered for publication in the Conference proceeding (with ISBN) or SCOPUS/ISI (WoS) indexed journals.
